RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not available for Service with Regular Forces for Home Defence.

[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation, will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not available for Service with Regular Forces for Home Defence.

[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

RESERVE OF OFFICERS.

The attention of Reserve Officers is particularly directed to the following Regulation:—

An Army Reserve Officer shall report himself at the commencement of each year, in writing, to the Secretary of the War Office. Should he fail to do so he shall (unless he be an Officer retired from the Regular Forces with liability for further service in case of emergency) be removed from the Reserve of Officers at the end of the year in which he fails to report himself.

Reserve Officers reporting themselves in compliance with this Regulation will, at the same time, furnish their addresses for the current year; and any subsequent change of address should be at once notified to the War Office.

[Officers whose names are printed in Italics are not available for Service with Regular Forces for Home Defence.

[Officers marked thus † are voluntarily in the Reserve of Officers.]

ROYAL WARRANTS.

A.O. 79, 1906.—Allowance Regulations.

EDWARD R.I.

WHEREAS We deem it expedient to increase the nightly rates of travelling allowance at present granted to officers of our Army below the rank of major, and to grant an allowance for the local purchase of additional articles of equipment and of decorative articles for hospital wards;

OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that the regulations issued with our Warrant of the 5th September, 1906, shall be altered as follows:—

Travelling allowances.

1. The maximum nightly allowance of all officers below the rank of major when travelling shall be raised from 12s. 6d. (Rate 1) and 7s. 6d. (Rate 2) to 15s. and 10s., respectively, and the following amendment shall be made in paragraph 366:—

In sub-paragraph (a). Officers.—Classes "7 to 10" shall be amended to read "7 to 14," and the line commencing "Classes 11 to 14" shall be deleted.

2. The following shall be added after paragraph 691:—

XIII—Allowance for local purchase of additional articles of equipment and decorative articles for hospital wards.

692. An initial allowance, not exceeding 5s. per bed will be granted to each new or re-appropriated hospital, nursed by Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service, in which the number of beds forming the approved accommodation is not less than 100.

A similar initial allowance will be granted for each bed added by War Office authority, to existing hospitals nursed by Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service, in which the total approved accommodation is not less than 100 beds.

693. A subsequent allowance for maintenance and additional purchases, not exceeding 1s. per bed per annum, will be granted to all hospitals nursed by Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service, in which the number of beds forming the approved accommodation is not less than 100.

694. These allowances will not be issued in cash, but will be expended in payment of bills incurred by medical officers in charge of hospitals in the purchase of—

- (a) Articles of equipment (additional to those allowed by the approved schedules of hospital equipment) of a type calculated to afford increased comfort to the sick.
- (b) Small useful or decorative articles of the class which tend to improve the appearance of hospital wards, and generally brighten military hospital surroundings.

695. The initial and annual allowances will not both be issuable in the same financial year. Any sums not actually disbursed in the financial year in which the allowance is issuable cannot be added to the allowances for the ensuing financial year, and must be regarded as forfeited.

696. Purchasing officers will be held responsible that the money is expended solely for the purposes detailed in paragraph 694. They will be held personally liable for—

- (a) Any expenditure incurred in the purchase of articles which the general officer commanding may consider unsuited for the purpose for which the allowances are granted.
- (b) Any expenditure in excess of the initial or annual allowances.

All bills will, before payment, be submitted for the approval of the general officer commanding.

697. The articles purchased from these allowances must be shown separately at the end of inventories of hospital equipment, in the same manner as "gifts." All bills submitted for payment must be supported by a certificate to the effect that the articles have been so accounted for.

698. Any necessary repairs which can be executed in local Army Ordnance Department workshops may be carried out at the expense of the public, provided the cost of repair is reasonable, having regard to the original value of the article. Replacements of stores purchased from these allowances will not be made by the Army Ordnance Department.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this 16th day of March, 1906, in the 6th year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,

A.O. 82, 1906.—Classification of Higher Commanders and Exercise of Powers of Command.

1. In order to carry out the principle of decentralization approved by the Army Council, the following classification of commanders has been approved, and will be inserted as paragraph 155 in King's Regulations:—

155. For the purposes of these regulations, the higher commanders of the Army are grouped in three classes, namely:—

(1.) General Officers Commanding-in-Chief.

(2.) Divisional Commanders.

(3.) Brigade Commanders.

The powers assigned to the above commanders will be exercised by the undermentioned officers, respectively, or by officers acting for them. A G.O.C.-in-C. is empowered to exercise the powers of a divisional or of a brigade commander, and a divisional commander may, similarly, exercise the powers of a brigade commander should occasion require it.

(1.) General Officer Commanding-in-Chief (G.O.C.-in-C.).

(2.) The G.O.C.-in-C. of a command in the United Kingdom and of South Africa, and the Governor and Commander-in-Chief of Malta, of Gibraltar, and of Bermuda.

(ii.) Also the following officers, who will exercise the powers, though they will not hold the title, of G.O.C.-in-C., or receive the honours and salutes pertaining to that title:—

Lieutenant-Generals of commands in India; the Officers Commanding Troops: London District; Guernsey and Alderney; Jersey; Sierra Leone; North China; South China; Straits Settlements; Mauritius; Egypt; Ceylon; and Jamaica.

(iii.) Also, the general officer commanding a force of more than one division in the field.

(2.) Divisional Commander.

(i.) The general officer commanding a division.

(ii.) Coast defence commander, when not below the rank of major-general.

(iii.) The general officers commanding Transvaal and Cape Colony districts.

(3.) Brigade Commander.

(i.) A major-general, or brigadier-general holding a command of troops, or a territorial command and not classified in (1) or (2) above.

(ii.) The following officers, when not below the rank of substantive or local colonel, will also exercise the powers of a brigade commander, except when it is stated in regulations that the power, in question is only to be exercised by an officer not below the rank of brigadier-general:—

(a.) An officer commanding a brigade of cavalry or infantry.

(b.) Commanders of two or more lieutenant-colonels' commands of R.A.

(c.) A coast defence commander, not classified in (2) or (3) (i.).

(d.) A chief engineer, a P.M.O., an O.C.A.S.C., an O.C.A.O.C.

2. Four sets of amendments to various paragraphs of the King's Regulations, showing, in each case, by which category of officers the powers or functions in question will be exercised, have been approved, and copies will be issued to all concerned.

3. Until a revised edition of the King's Regulations is promulgated, the expression "General Commanding," used in the current edition, is to be taken to mean G.O.C.-in-C., except where otherwise mentioned.

A.O. 83, 1906.—Official Correspondence with Commands, &c.

With reference to the foregoing Army Order, revised rules for the addressing of official correspondence have been approved, and the following will be substituted for paragraph 2083, King's Regulations:—

2083. Official communications intended for the War Office are to be transmitted through the G.O.C.-in-C. of the command, except as provided in paragraph 2072.

Letters for the War Office are to be addressed to "The Secretary, the War Office," except in cases specially provided for in regulations.

Letters for the G.O.C.-in-C. of a command and for divisional and brigade commanders and their staffs, are to be addressed as follows:—

"Head-quarters, ——— Command."

"Head-quarters, ——— th Division."

"Head-quarters, ——— th Brigade."

"Head-quarters, ——— Coast Defence Command."

"Head-quarters, ——— Grouped Regimental District."

In the case of the Southern Command, letters will be addressed—

"Head-quarters, Southern Command, Tidworth, Andover," when the subject matter is to be dealt with by the general staff, and,

"Head-quarters, Southern Command, Salisbury," when the subject matter is to be dealt with by the administrative staff.

To avoid the danger of confusion in the delivery of letters at Colonial stations, the envelope should be addressed to—

"Head-quarters, Military Command, ———."

A.O. 84, 1906.—Infantry of the Line—Organization.

The organization of a battalion of Infantry of the Line at Home, in India, and in the Colonies, is detailed in Appendices I. to III. of this order. (Not printed in Army List.)

A.O. 85, 1906.—Changes in Designation of Fortress Units of the Royal Engineers.

1. Consequent on the decision to remove submarine mining defences at all stations, the distinction between fortress and submarine mining units has been abolished.

2. This has necessitated certain changes in the designation of fortress units. The present and future designations of the units concerned are as shown below.

3. The establishment of ranks for each unit will appear in Regimental Establishments of the Regular Forces for 1906-07.

The following amendments will be made in the King's Regulations:—

Service Pay.

1. The following will be substituted for paragraph 654:—

654. All officers are to acquaint themselves with regulations and orders. Ignorance of published orders will not be admitted as an excuse for their non-observance. All orders specially relating to the soldiers are to be read and explained to them immediately after such orders are received; and important orders are to be read on three successive parades. See also paragraph 258A. Every circumstance which affects a soldier's service or pay, including service pay, is to be published in regimental orders immediately after its occurrence. When a soldier becomes efficient and eligible to draw service pay, Class I. or II., the fact will be published in regimental orders. In arms of the service for which a musketry standard is laid down for the grant of service pay the names of all soldiers who have completed the classification practices, and the standard attained by each man will be immediately published in regimental orders. (1) In the first of each month extracts from these orders for the previous month are to be made out on Army Form O 1810, and signed by the adjutant, and copies furnished to each officer commanding a company, &c. affected.

2. The following will be inserted after paragraph 706:—

SERVICE PAY.

706A. For the purposes of service pay men are classified under Class I., so long as they reach the required standard of efficiency. This consists of—

- (1.) A general standard for all arms.
- (2.) A special standard for the several arms.
- (3.) A musketry standard for cavalry and infantry.

(1) General Standard, all Arms.

A fair standard of individual discipline and of educational, physical and military efficiency will be required. The officer commanding his unit will decide each man's case upon its merits. As a rule, the standard of education should not be below that of a third class certificate. The general commanding may, in exceptional cases, modify, or entirely dispense with this educational standard if the man enlisted before the 1st January, 1901.

A soldier who is certified to be suffering from venereal disease or its effects, or from the results of alcoholism, cannot be considered as attaining the fair standard of physical efficiency requisite for the issue of Class I. service pay, and, if in receipt of service pay Class I., may be degraded to Class II., as provided in the Pay Warrant.

(1) Special Standards.

(a.) Artificers, specialists, and tradesmen.—Should be thoroughly qualified in their trades, &c., and be proficient in the personal weapon with which they are armed.

(b.) Cavalry.—The soldier should be a good scout with a knowledge of simple map reading and power of observation and reporting, a good horseman, groom, horse-master, and man-at-arms. He should have an adequate knowledge of troop and squadron drill.

- (c.) Artillery.—The gunner or driver should have attained the corps classification of "1st Class."
- (d.) Engineers.—In addition to the conditions laid down in (a), the sapper or driver should be thoroughly efficient as such.
- (e.) Infantry.—The soldier should be a good skirmisher, and should combine skill-at-arms with the physical development required to perform long marches.
- (f.) Army Service Corps.—Drivers should be thoroughly capable of taking charge of at least a pair of animals. Clerks should have 2nd class certificates of education at least, and be classified in their corps as not less than 3rd grade or "good."
- Bakers and butchers should have a trade classification of not less than "1st hand."
- (g.) Royal Army Medical Corps.—Privates should not be less than 1st or 2nd class orderlies, in receipt of 3rd or 4th class rates of corps pay; but 3rd class orderlies and privates of the general duty section may be included if considered by their commanding officer to merit Class I. rates by reason of being specially qualified for any particular technical duty.
- (h.) Army Ordnance Corps.—Clerks should be classified in the corps as not less than 3rd grade; artificers as not less than 3rd class; storemen as not less than assistant foremen, and hammermen as skilled.
- (i.) Army Pay Corps.—The efficiency of a clerk should be judged by the quality of his work, and the general ability and intelligence he displays in performing it.
- (j.) Army Veterinary Corps.—A soldier should be thoroughly competent to perform the duties required of him, in addition to being a good groom and horse-master.

(3) Musketry Standard, Cavalry and Infantry.

A cavalry or infantry soldier (other than those who may be excused from musketry under the Musketry Regulations) shall not be entitled to receive Class I. service pay, unless he was classed as a 2nd class shot and upwards at the completion of the last annual classification practices of Table B, Trained Soldiers' Course, in which he took part.

Class II.

Men who fail to reach these standards of efficiency, but are otherwise qualified, will for the present be classed as Class II.

Band Contributions and Subscriptions.

3. (i.) The contributions and subscriptions of officers to the band funds of units of cavalry and infantry stationed in India will cease from the 1st April, 1906.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, Colonel E. L. F. Jennings, M.V.O., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Superintendent Miss S. Anderson, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, and the desire of the Committee is to maintain the full complement.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average three candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-Commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

MILITARY WIDOWS' FUND, BRITISH SERVICE.

(Late Queen's Military Widows' Fund.)

The Military Widows' Fund, British Service, was established in 1820 to alleviate the distress of families of officers of the British Service and to enable them to return to England without unnecessary delay. Whenever an officer of the British Service, who is a subscriber to this Fund, dies, his family receives at once, the following assistance, namely:—Six months maintenance allowance ranging from Rs. 2,400/ to Rs. 3,600/, according to rate subscribed, plus Rs. 1,500/ for passage for the widow, plus Rs. 500/ or Rs. 300/ for passage for each child, according to whether it is over or under 12 years of age. These benefits are secured by a small subscription of Rs. 4, 3, or 2 per mensem, which is regulated by the amount of pay an officer draws. An officer, immediately on becoming a subscriber, secures at once for his wife and children, quite irrespective of length of service in India, the full benefits of the Fund in case of his death.

In 1902 the sum of Rs. 31,200/ was paid in awards to families of deceased subscribers; and the total amount paid since the establishment of the Fund in 1820 exceeds Rs. 22,00,000/.

Copies of the Regulations of the Fund can be obtained from the Honorary Secretary at Simla.
